

ESCURA ATTENDS TO THE DAY OF THE EUROPEAN UNION AND SME

Escura assists as Support Agent for the Internationalization (ASI) to the conference on the "European Union and SME: What should be kept in mind for 2019?" that took place in the Representation of the European Commission in Barcelona.

Ferran Tarradellas, Director of the Representation of the European Commission in Barcelona, has exposed the great European trends for the 019, analyzing the current situation and the future expectations of the European Union, emphasizing the uncertainties of certain issues such as the Brexit or the fall in the price of the oil, among other key aspects to which it has been sentenced as "Black Swan events".

ACCIÓ is an agency of the Generalitat de Catalunya specialized in fostering innovation and business internationalization, with more than 20 years of experience in the development of programs for Catalan companies and 39 Foreign Trade and Investment Offices around the world.

Bufete Escura, was recognized by ACCIO as a Support Agent for Internationalization, since we are characterized by accompanying companies in their internationalization process, making available to these companies a variety of services that can be grouped into three levels of collaboration: on the first level, through punctual operations and advice; on the second level, advice on the implementation abroad and; on the third level, the management and monitoring of the company implemented abroad from the Barcelona offices.

Bufete Escura is a firm composed by lawyers, economists and social graduates from Barcelona with more than 50 professionals. It is a firm recognized by the main legal guides: Chambers and Partners, Best Lawyers and IFLR1000.

Organized by:

Bufete Escura recognized as Support Agent for Internationalization:

