

Escura and Studio Legale Sutti sing a collaboration agreement

UPDATES

🕒 02/03/2023

The law firm Escura and the Italian law firm Studio Legale Sutti have signed a best friends collaboration agreement to offer advice and service to their respective clients.

Pictured: Livia Oglio y Giangiuseppe Sanna, abogados de Studio Legale Sutti, y Eugenia Ravagnan Veneze, of counsel de Escura.

In addition, this agreement aims to organise training, promotion and updating events between both signatories, as well as the promotion of exchanges between professionals of the respective offices and the improvement of mutual knowledge of the laws of each of the two countries. It will also strengthen and supports the Latin Desk, created in 2002 in Milan, through which the general needs of clients with interests in Iberian and Latin American countries are attended to.

According to Fernando Escura, managing partner of Escura, this agreement “strengthens our international projection and the value of the firm thanks to the support of our colleagues at Studio Legale Sutti and the possibilities of collaboration; it will also reinforce our Italian Desk service and relations with our Italian clients”.

Escura is a firm of lawyers and economists with a strong presence in Spain dedicated to providing advice in all areas to companies at national and international level. It also has an Italian Desk specialised in advising Italian companies.

Studio Legale Sutti is an Italian law firm with a strong focus on corporate commercial law and intellectual property and competition law, offering its services to local companies and entrepreneurs.

Both firms are part of the TAGLaw network of lawyers, the leading international network of lawyers.

